

Open positions at Swedish Organization for Global Health

Founded in 2014, the Swedish Organization for Global Health is a young non-governmental organization with a lot of potential. Since the start, we have successfully established partnerships for public health interventions in Sweden and Uganda.

We are a team of dedicated social entrepreneurs who work voluntarily to create a platform for students and young professionals to start up their own projects in the field of global health or join working groups and events on related topics.

Based in Stockholm and located on the campus of a medical university, the Swedish Organization for Global Health is holding open team meetings every second week for team members and the public to join. More information on our social media:

For our team in Stockholm, we are looking for dedicated volunteers who are interested in working with Global Health issues.

Fundraising Managers (2 positions)

As Fundraising Manager you will be responsible for activities aiming at raising funds for our projects in Sweden and abroad.

Your tasks:

- Develop fundraising ideas and goals
- Identify and explore potential donors and partners
- Plan and manage marketing efforts (e.g. online fundraising campaigns)
- Organize fundraising and information events and represent SOGH

Your profile:

You would like to gain experience in working with an international non-governmental organization or have previously worked as fundraising or events manager. You are preferably based in Stockholm and have time to work voluntarily approximately 5 hours/week and take part in our open team meetings twice a month.

Financial Manager

Your tasks:

- Monitor the organization's national and international project budgets

- Produce financial reports to partners and donors
- Develop strategies for financial long-term goals
- Produce annual financial reports to the Swedish tax agency

Your profile:

You would like to gain experience in working with an international non-governmental organization or have previously worked as financial manager. You are preferably based in Stockholm and have time to work voluntarily approximately 8 hours/month and take part in our open team meetings twice a month.

Member to the board of managers

As member to the board of managers at the Swedish Organization for Global Health, you will have an active management role at a well-established non-governmental organization.

Your tasks:

- Oversee several public and global health projects and working groups and be involved in strategic and financial planning of all initiatives
- Active involvement in project activities, plan and organize open team meetings
- Establish and maintain national and international partnerships and represent the organization at events

Your profile:

You would like to gain experience in working with an international non-governmental organization and have previous experience of project management or social entrepreneurship. You are preferably based in Stockholm, are available for 12 months or longer and have time to work voluntarily approximately 8 hours/week.

If you are not interested in any of the positions above but would like to start your own public health intervention, we are happy to help you set up your project. Please send your project idea and CV to the email address below.

Please send us your CV (1-2 pages) and a short motivation letter, stating why you are interested in working with SOGH and what you would like to achieve in your role, to directors@sogh.se until September 25.

We are looking forward to your application!
